

To improve organization effectiveness, IWNC helps develop and sustain the six dimensions of an effective organization.

Direction

We help people align their actions with the direction of the organization. Leadership

We develop leadership skills and build the confidence needed to apply those skills. Interaction

We enhance the capacity of people to collaborate and work as teams. Communication

We work to improve communication effectiveness. Environment

We guide organizations to create an environment in which people work to their best abilities. Adaptability

We increase people's ability to drive positive change. Our Services in Organization
